

The Goat Village

Resident Norms & guidelines

Ecotourism is defined as 'responsible travel to natural areas that conserves the environment and improves the well-being of local people'. Such tourism is low impact, educational, and conserves the environment while directly benefiting the economic development of local communities. Ecotourism, when practiced correctly, is an important economic and educational activity..

The Goat Village, in sync with Indian government's guidelines for eco-tourism areas, carries a proper guidelines for its guests so as we may encourage good practices.

Ecotourism Guidelines: We appreciate and respect the colours and sounds of nature. Please, dress in colours that blend with the natural environment. Take pictures but without disturbing wildlife. Keep a reasonable distance from wild animals, and do not provoke them. While in a vehicle, do not honk or get out of the vehicle and do not approach animals closer than 15 m or disturb them while they are resting. Do not take away flora and fauna in the form of cuttings, seeds or roots. Do not feed wild animal. Do not light fires, or smoke inside protected areas. Accidental forest fires cause irreparable damage.
